

I do not appreciate Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law being threatened. Indiana residents have the right to our privacy in our own homes. I do not want to be bothered by anyone other than friends and family on the telephone. I do not care if they are banks I do business with or not. Banks can contact us by mail; they do not have to bother us on the telephone. I urge you to not weaken or cancel the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.